

Dual Stimulation App-Controlled Vibrating Egg by JOYSTOYS PARIS

SKU : TD023 · Brand : JOYSTOYS PARIS

This dual-head vibrating egg combines ergonomic design with connected technology to deliver a dual-stimulation experience. Its curved shape, crafted from premium medical-grade silicone, naturally follows the body's contours, allowing simultaneous stimulation of the clitoris and the internal vaginal wall through two independent vibrating heads.

What sets this product apart is its dedicated mobile app control, offering three complementary usage modes: a classic mode for direct manual control, a video mode that syncs vibrations to the rhythm of video content, and a music mode that adjusts intensity based on ambient sound. Six vibration intensities and patterns are available, providing a wide range of sensations from gentle to intense.

Thanks to long-distance connectivity, the app also allows remote control by a partner, making it ideal for couples separated by distance or those looking to add a playful, connected dimension to their intimacy. The device is fully coated in silky-smooth silicone, odor-free, hypoallergenic, and phthalate-free, ensuring both comfort and safety during use.

Compact, lightweight, and discreet, this accessory easily fits into a handbag or toiletry bag for use at home or on the go. It recharges via USB cable, eliminating the need for batteries, for an economical and eco-friendly experience. Perfect for specialty shops and e-commerce retailers looking to expand their catalog with a versatile, tech-forward product that meets growing demand for connected sex toys.
