

Lubrix Nature - Water-Based Lubricant 50ml JOYLUB

SKU : LUBRIX-NATURE-LUBRIFIANT-A-BASE-D-EAU-50-QPPX · Brand : JOYLUB

Lubrix Nature is a water-based intimate lubricant designed to deliver smooth, comfortable glide for everyday use. This compact and discreet 50ml size is perfect for on-the-go use or as an entry-level product in-store, complementing the larger sizes in the Lubrix Nature range.

Its water-based formula is dermatologically tested, making it a suitable choice for sensitive skin. The lubricant is made in France, a traceability and quality guarantee valued by both consumers and retail professionals alike.

The clear bottle comes fitted with a pump dispenser that allows for precise, mess-free dosing without any waste. This 50ml size is particularly well-suited for shelf display, discovery sets, or specialty stores looking to offer an affordable entry point into the Lubrix Nature brand.

Compatible with most silicone, latex, and other materials commonly found in intimate wellness accessories, this water-based lubricant rinses off easily with water and won't stain fabric.
